

Ferguson College of Agriculture Alumni Board Alumni Early Career Achievement Award Nomination Form

The Ferguson College of Agriculture at Oklahoma State University prepares its graduates to succeed at the highest level of their chosen career path. The Early Career Achievement Award recognizes two former college of agriculture students who have found early success in their careers.

Award recipients are honored in a ceremony during the Ferguson College of Agriculture Scholarships and Awards Banquet in the spring semester. Attendance is required in order to receive the recognition.

Criteria for Selection

The recipient shall demonstrate one or more of the following criteria:

- Have attained prominence through his/her efforts in agriculture, natural resources, life sciences, or other related areas of science, business, education or government and public service.
- Possess stature and demonstrated ability that merits the recognition of a proven leader in his/her chosen field.
- Have a record of impressive accomplishments which indicate significant achievements and contributions at the state, national and/or international level.
- Have a demonstrated interest in the college of agriculture such as guest lectures, visits to campus, development opportunities, etc.

Eligibility

All nominees must possess an undergraduate or graduate degree from the Ferguson College of Agriculture.

- Nominees should have earned their bachelor's degree within the past 15 years.
- Posthumous nominations are welcomed.
- Nominations must be submitted for individuals only – team nominations are not eligible.
- Current members of the Ferguson College of Agriculture Alumni Board are not eligible for nomination.

Nomination Guidelines

Nominations are due by February 1, 2023 for recognition at the college's Scholarship and Awards Banquet on March 30, 2023. Please email nomination packets to megan.janus@okstate.edu.
